January 1998 Newsletter

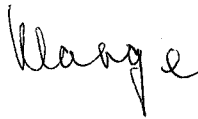

Happy New Year Caravaners

O my goodness, where has the time gone? Here it's at years end and yours truly hasn't accomplished half of what she would like to have done. There is some consolation however, in that less, as bad as it sounds, is still far better than nothing at all, to my way of thinking.

Our Christmas gathering at our home seemed to be enjoyed by all. With Betty's help, we put together a very tasty dinner. This must be a true statement if the fact that there were very little leftovers, has merit. Those who helped consume it all were: Elenere Amidon, Sue Brown, Frank and Steve Burnham, Dale and Marge Grosch, Len and Virginia Paul, Betty Kopfhammer, Alma George, Pete Rinne, Virginia and Dale Leipper, Diane Leipper and Vesta and Neal Teman. Since Lee had to go to Southern California, Sue did the driving, we missed all of our other members.

In ending my part of this message, I want to sincerely wish everyone a happy and most of all, healthy New Year. I, as your President, appreciate very much your continuing loyal support of the unit and sincerely hope, that you will continue doing so.

See you down the road;
